

Students are free to use generative AI tools in FIE401 course.

However, please note that students are responsible for mistakes, usage of erroneous / fake information, and poorly written texts provided by generative AI tools if these are found in the assignments or written exam. Grades will reflect them as if mistakes were generated by students rather than generative AI tools.

Students should acknowledge whether generative AI tools were used and how they were used in the assignments / written exam.